

21 Questions

This is not a test. The purpose of these questions is to stimulate ongoing efforts to learn the fullness of the gospel of God and Christ restored through Joseph Smith Jun. that he tried to teach the early saints to bring them into the presence of God.

1. By what means are you a child of God the Father? Nebulous terms like “literal” and “begotten” must be clearly defined.
2. Which individuals, by the name of their station, uttered the commands to cause the creation of this earth?
3. Identify the currently ruling Gods over this earth.
4. What is the highest possible station and role you can attain in all the eternities?
5. How, when and where are families increased?
6. What God interacted with humankind in the Old Testament and who interfaces with humans since Christ ascended? (If different)
7. Could Jesus have failed in His calling as Redeemer? Why?
8. Who are the Gods between earths?
9. How many classes of spirits can be inferred?
10. Is there such a thing as birthing spirit offspring in the heavenly realm?
11. Who, by determinative factors, might occupy each of the three degrees of the Celestial Kingdom?
12. What is the most important acquisition in this life?

13. Define what makes, and is, an eternal and sovereign God the Father?
14. Does your body resemble your spirit or does your spirit take on the looks of your body?
15. What do you imagine is the adversary's most permanently effective tool used to stop one's progression in this life?
16. Name what ordinances and performances must be done only on earth.
17. Explain Father, Son, and Holy Ghost as one God besides their doctrinal agreement with each other.
18. What priesthood divisions exist when not associated with an earth?
19. What activity dominates the period between earths?
20. Explain the role of the Patriarchal Order of Priesthood gained by conferral ordinance on earth.
21. What can God never take away?