

A Key

The Godhead between creative cycles consists only of the three Gods; Elohim, the Holy Ghost, and the exalted and glorified Michael-Adam, the Ancient of Days, or can also be called Jehovah-Michael. They stand at the head of the Holy Quorum of exalted men with their wives.

The Great Elohim is no respecter of beings. Every spirit must be given their agency and free will to determine their final status and be proven in a mortality for some to advance in Eternal power to a glorified resurrection and exaltation, without exception. Nothing and no one can ever be denied agency and its effects.

findingzion.org